

Policy

Group Human Resources

June 12th, 2023

Scope and Objective

The Group Human Resources policy is an integral part of the Holcim policy landscape and MCS framework. The policy is applicable to all Group Companies where Holcim Ltd has a controlling interest. The policy provides global principles for the correct execution of HR processes considering proper balance between fair treatment of our employees and business needs. The principles of this policy have global application. Wherever is needed, the policy should be further adjusted to comply with local laws but maintaining the essence of this policy of: fairness, respect and human rights. In the event of a breach of the CoBC, the matter shall be investigated (see the Business Integrity and Speak Up directive), and if employee misconduct is substantiated, employee disciplinary measures may be taken.

Our employees are at the center of whatever we do. Our vision is to deliver sustainable competitive advantage through our people, teams and organizations.

Our Commitments

- Staffing: Holcim conducts staffing processes based on fairness, equitable, and non-discriminatory principles, balancing firstly internal candidates over external talent and wherever appropriate giving priority to candidates who help us to build our diversity balance. By principle, a diverse candidate pool must be provided as part of the recruitment and selection process, especially in terms of gender. Anybody involved in the staffing process is obliged to act as Holcim ambassadors displaying the best characteristics and values that represent our company. Please refer to principles of Diversity, fairness and respect contained in the CoBC.
- Onboarding: We provide quality onboarding processes ensuring a successful integration of all new employees. Three months is a reference period for a full onboarding: adaptation to the work environment, awareness of Holcim policies and directives, inclusion in HR processes (e.g. personal work space, basic HR administration, H&S induction, personal access to systems, individual objectives, payroll, etc.). All companies are obliged to follow and fulfill the MCS25.01, MCS25.03.
- Learning & Development Opportunities: Holcim Group provides development opportunities locally, regionally and globally. Any development opportunity is properly balanced between presential, digital learning and on the job activities. Learning & Development opportunities are strategically aligned to address business needs. All managers and employers are responsible to maintain a continuous development and career discussion in order to ensure an engaging professional progress in the company. All employees are accountable and empowered to take action and address development experiences in the organization. All companies are obliged to report the training hours on an annual basis through the Stakeholder questionnaire sent by Group Sustainability team as stated in the MCS 62.01

- Career Opportunities abroad: We offer career opportunities locally and internationally to support the business and development of our employees. Some of the opportunities can take place in other locations in the world with a transfer of employment or through an expatriation process whenever the business rationale is adequate. Please refer to the following policy & directives: International Mobility Policy, Short Term Assignment, Long Term Assignment, Local Plus directives.

- Performance Management: Holcim fosters a performance based culture. To instrument this, managers and employees are accountable to have regular and frequent performance discussions across the year. All employees are accountable together with their manager to define an Individual Development Plan as well as to identify and close performance gaps. All companies are obliged to perform these processes in accordance with principles of Diversity, fairness and respect contained in the CoBC.

- Talent and Succession Management: All organizational units in Holcim deploy an annual talent review and succession planning process to assure a robust talent pipeline to fulfill high standards of performance and the Group's growth ambitions. Diverse elements (such as leadership competencies model, people assessments models, experience based career plan, succession planning, performance and talent calibrations) follow a common framework defined by Group HR. Countries are accountable for its local adoption and high quality deployment. All companies are expected to perform these processes in accordance with principles of Diversity, fairness and respect contained in the CoBC.

- Total Reward and Pensions: Holcim promotes a performance culture, whilst ensuring transparency, equality, fairness and competitiveness of the reward offer to all employees. Holcim follows an orientation of 'total rewards' to assess the competitiveness of our compensation models. All companies are expected to use certified remuneration methodologies and benchmarks to assess and offer competitive remuneration packages, including variable compensation. To further drive and differentiate performance, the Group favors the use of variable pay. Countries are accountable to define and apply competitive compensation schemes, including but not limited to pension, retirement plans and health insurance, according to local circumstances, practices and regulations in alignment with Group HR Directives. Long-term incentive plans are managed solely by Group HR. The execution of compensation, benefits and pensions requires full compliance by all Group companies to MCS26.01, MCS26.02, MCS26.03, MCS27.01, MCS27.02, MCS27.03, MCS 28.01, MCS 28.02, MCS 28.03, MCS 28.04, MCS 28.05 For Pensions, please consult the existing directive: Group Pensions & Benefits Directive.

- Diversity & Inclusion: Holcim is an equal opportunity employer making no distinctions on the grounds of ethnic backgrounds, cultures, religions, ages, disabilities, medical conditions, races, sexual identities, gender, world views, affiliation to political organizations, unions, minority groups. or wherever local legislation permits. Consistent with our respect for each other and with the employment laws of numerous countries in which we work, we do not tolerate discrimination against anyone on the basis of any of these characteristics or any other comparably offensive behavior. Holcim provides a safe environment to speak up and to formally escalate & report an incidents through the Integrity Line. All Holcim entities are required to develop plans as part of the ongoing activities to comply with any local regulations in the area of equal opportunities and non-discrimination, as well as to achieve an adequate level of gender balance. Countries are accountable to make Diversity & Inclusion an integral part in each one of their People related processes. All companies are obliged to perform these processes and trainings to avoid discrimination and harassment in the workplace in accordance with our CoBC and Group Diversity & Inclusion Standards.

- Labor relations, social policies and care for our people: Holcim is committed to promoting an active social dialogue with employee organizations, unions and other stakeholders at all levels. Holcim does not tolerate any form of intimidation, harassment, retaliation or violence against workers seeking to exercise the right to form and join a trade union of their choice. Holcim is further committed to consult employee representatives on important matters that affect them. Holcim is also committed to promote an open dialogue culture and to have regular employee briefings and informal meetings to update the employees on the course of the business followed by Q&A sessions. The Group commits to respect the International Labour Organization (ILO) basic principles and rights at work: Effective abolition of child labour; Elimination of all forms of forced or compulsory labour; Elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation, Freedom of association and effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining. This includes the Group's commitment to conduct business with a goal of zero harm and in full compliance with our code of business conduct. For more info please consult the Health & Safety Policy and CoBC.

- Working regulations: To support our employees, wherever possible Holcim offers different flexible working arrangements such as part - time, home office, job-sharing, flexible shifts or similar. All of this in compliance with local labor regulations and in alignment with business and employee needs. All companies in the Holcim Ltd. Group ("Holcim") will endeavor to provide their employees satisfying careers and a healthy balance between work and personal life. Expectations for hours worked will be set in accordance with legal requirements, and, where applicable, employment contracts or agreements with labor unions. Holcim will provide fair compensation for work performed, including overtime in accordance with local law, individual contracts, or union contracts.

As a global principle in Holcim, the ordinary working hours will be limited to a maximum of 48 hours per week, subject to any other limits provided by the applicable relevant international and/or country working time rules and regulations. Exceptions and exemptions as provided by international and/or country laws and regulations will continue to apply.

- Digital HR and HR Systems: Holcim strives for a data-driven organization culture that captures the best opportunities in the use of technology applied to HR. Globally Group HR manages MCS37, MCS38 and MCS40. Group HR builds the configuration to comply by the group companies with MCS36. Locally, companies are obliged to comply with MCS11.

- a. Data Accuracy: All employees are responsible for informing any changes in their relevant personal data through the available processes and systems. Accurate recording and reporting is required as stated in point 2.4 of the CoBC
- b. Compliance: Management of personnel data is performed in full legal compliance and data privacy as stated in MCS11

- c. Efficiency: HRIS solutions are developed to support efficient people management processes in the organization.
- Exiting: Holcim applies a principle of fair treatment to people who exit our Group according to the applicable legislations and existing practices. Countries are responsible to adjust their practices to the normal comparable ones in their reference environments and fully align to Group Directives and approval processes. All companies are obliged to follow and fulfill the MCS25.02
